to postpone the sale to some other date pending orders of Govt. (Slip B)

That Officer has submitted a detailed report thereon together with the vernacular records bearing on the subject.

The Dfj Commissioner reports that a total sum of Rs 414-3-4 is due from the two jodi villages in question from Subba Rao, retired Sheristedar, Agent of these villages and that the sale of the villages has been held in abeyance pending Govt orders on the subject. Slip C. *Vide Statement in the vernacular records. (Slip D)

Jodidar Subba Rao depose that he was paying Rs 750/ every year for feeding in the Bungalow Lokowdiah's chattram; that since 1895-6, as no amount could be collected (Slip E)

The order referred to at the commencement is in connection with taking over the Govt Management the Chowdriks Chattram at Pachaimarathavu with its endowments

Govt were of opinion that this could not be done without resulting in Civil Court decree as there was a trustee formed by a private individual and vested an endowment according

The party who founded the Chattram endowed it with some lands (villages) which were formed therein At the Inam settlement these villages were classed as Dharmadaya Hence the information if further asked for; and the matter was detained as stated above.

The local Govt to decide if Govt can take these Villages having further as the arrears they were advertised for sale Nanai, a Ryot, one of the descendants of Chowdrik, having requested that the Villages instead of being sold may be kept under Govt Management, a report has called for from the Dist which has been received; and the matter is now disposed of.

A draft is submitted for obliteration.

Respected Sir,

I beg to Submit the following few lines to your kind consideration & pray that favorable orders might be issued at an early date.

I hear that Bidarakka & Somanahalli, two jodi villages in the Hob Narsipur Taluk, & endowed to Bungalow Chowdaki's Charities, are at Paschimalle to be sold by Public auction on the 24th of this month for arrears of jodi Amount. So I pray that the Deputy Commissioner of the Hassan District may be requested to stop the auction sale, & to place the two villages under his management to collect the arrears due from the ryots & to deposit the balance after deducting the Govt. dues in the Govt. Treasury in the name of the institution.

I beg to remain,
Respected Sir,
Your most Obedt & humble Servant
